

MISS MURIEL LEENEY WED

She Is Married at Rye to Ulric
R. Jaeger of Chicago

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

RYE, N. Y., Dec. 28.—Miss Muriel Leeney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Leeney of this place, was married this afternoon to Ulric R. Jaeger, son of R. Richard Jaeger of Mamaroneck, in the Westchester Country Club here. The Rev. Thomas F. Watkins, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of White Plains, performed the ceremony. A reception followed.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Miss Joan Myers of Watertown, N. Y., and Mrs. Henry Winterling of Port Chester were the bridal attendants. Harry Oldfield was best man.

The bride is a graduate of Russell Sage College for Women. Mr. Jaeger was graduated from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

After a wedding trip the couple will live in Chicago.

The New York Times

Published: December 29, 1937

Copyright © The New York Times